

5th Grade (into 6th)

Summer Reading, Math, and Keyboarding Practice

St. Gabriel subscribes to these websites. The log-ins will be valid until next school year.

1. *Reading A-Z / RAZ Kids - leveled reading practice

- Go to the website: www.kidsa-z.com
- Enter the Teacher Username: 5A: stgab5A 5B: stgab5B
- Click on student's name
- Click on "Reading Assignment"
- Do the three tasks under each book: listen to book, read book aloud, and take quiz
- After all three tasks are completed - move on to the next book
- Students will automatically move to the next reading level when all tasks under all books have been completed.

2. ABCya - language arts and math practice (and much more!)

- Go to the website: www.ABCya.com
- Click on the appropriate grade level; Click on any of the games/activities

3. *Mathletics - math practice

- Go to the website: www.mathletics.com
- Click Sign-in and enter your Log-in with your Username and Password
Note: Usernames and Passwords are NOT case sensitive but any hyphen or dash in a Username MUST be included
- Click on any of the ACTIVITIES to find practice questions related to the 5th Grade common core math standards
- Click on LIVE MATHLETICS to "race the clock" while competing with other users
- Click on PROBLEM SOLVING to find more games and activities

4. *Prodigy - math practice

- Go to the website: www.ProdigyGame.com
- Click on Play Prodigy
- enter Username and Password

5. *Typing Pal - keyboarding practice

- Go to the website: https://stgabrielsf.typingpal.com/
- Select: LOG IN WITH GOOGLE ACCOUNT Username/Password
- Keyboarding Goal: 20 WPM at start of 6th grade/ 25 WPM by end of 6th grade
- Sixth Graders will have one hour of typing practice homework per week

 Log in with Google